

Winter 2018

Tuesdays 12:30-3:30

Child Phonology

This course will explore first and second language speech learning and first language change in children in different bilingual contexts. L2 speech learning and L1 change of both the segmental and prosodic aspects of a number of languages will be examined. Cross-linguistic influence and developmental factors will be discussed.