

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures

Presents

The Mind of Poetry

A Bilingual Conversation (English/Spanish) on Poetry

Join us to listen and talk with two professors and poets, who come from completely different disciplines, and will share their love of poetry:

Vladimir Hachinski (Professor of Neurology and Epistemology, UWO) is a world-renowned authority who has received multiple awards for his works on stroke and on dementia, and is the author of one book of poetry in Spanish.

Teo A. Noriega (Emeritus Professor, Trent University) is a Colombian-Canadian scholar and a well-known Latin American Poet, and author of several books of poetry.

When: Tuesday, January 30th, 2018

Time: 2:45pm - 4:30pm

Room: Dr. David S.H. Chu International Centre
International and Graduate Affairs Building (IGAB)