

ICC 2200F: NOT LOST IN TRANSLATION

[FALL 2026]

How does culture mold habits of thought?
What is “lost in translation” between cultures?

Explore cultural values, practices, symbols, rituals, and non-verbal and verbal communication. Examples and projects will be based on language and storytelling in literature, film, music, popular culture, food, and fashion.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Engage with the theory and practice of intercultural communication.
- Interpret and evaluate key theoretical approaches to intercultural communication issues.
- Collaboratively apply theoretical approaches to intercultural communication in class and in digital environments.
- Critically curate resources using digital tools to construct knowledge and produce creative artifacts.

EVALUATION

Reflections	30%
Student Engagement	20%
Creative Applications (Wakelet, PechaKucha, Infographic, etc.)	50%