

PHILOSOP 9__

Philosophy of Emotion

Prof. Louis Charland

This course explores select issues in the history and philosophy of emotion, including: the history of the term “emotion” and related affective terms; the status of emotion as a scientific domain; the distinction between “passion” and “emotion;” “outlaw” emotions in feminist philosophy of emotion; as well as various theories of emotion in philosophy and psychology.