This seminar will explore the relationship between phenomenal consciousness (the felt, subjective aspect of mental life) and our ability to think about things.