DESCRIPTION

A very first introduction to Early Buddhist philosophy. The course will overview the connections among the Buddha’s theory of knowledge, being and ethics, comparing them where helpful to doctrines familiar from Western philosophy (e.g., in the pre-Socratics and Early Modern Empiricists). Discussion will focus on the sutras (i.e., works tracing to the Buddha’s own teachings). We will discuss how each of epistemology, metaphysics and ethics connect to Buddhist soteriology (salvation from suffering), but the course will address Buddhism as philosophy, rather than as a religious practice. As such, the doctrines will be explained sympathetically, but also assessed critically.

TEXTS

Bhikkhu Bodhi (ed.)(2005). In the Buddha’s Words. Somerville, MA: Wisdom.
[ISBN 978-0-86171-491-9]

OBJECTIVES

The twin objectives are honing of philosophical skills and enriching students’ familiarity with some “touchstone” ideas in Early Buddhist philosophy. In terms of skills, the emphasis will be on: introduction to philosophical writing; methodological reflection; and respectful but incisive philosophical dialogue.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

“Two pager” on debate resolutions (5% each): 15%
In-class group debates (5% each): 15%
In-class mid-term test: 20%
Glossary of philosophical terms: 20%

Participation: 10%

Take-home exam: 20%

Notes on assignments:

- Glossary entries are homework and are to be completed within two days. Given that they are homework assignments, late submissions will be allowed only under extraordinary circumstances such that uploading the assignment is not possible.
- Participation includes regular attendance but also contributions to questions and answers.
- There are no “late penalties”. Barring a medical/compassionate accommodation or a pre-arranged extension, term work not submitted by the deadline will receive a zero.
- The test and exam will cover materials as presented in class and online and as found in the assigned readings. In particular, the final exam is not a research essay.
- Copying from sources of any kind – peers, websites, etc. – for any of the above assignments, requires proper citation.
- Use of Chat GPT for composing term work is prohibited.

AUDIT

Students wishing to audit the course should consult with the instructor prior to or during the first week of classes.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY POLICIES

The Department of Philosophy Policies which govern the conduct, standards, and expectations for student participation in Philosophy courses is available in the Undergraduate section of the Department of Philosophy website at <http://uwo.ca/philosophy/undergraduate/policies.html>.

It is your responsibility to understand the policies set out by the Senate and the Department of Philosophy, and thus ignorance of these policies cannot be used as grounds of appeal.

ACCOMMODATION

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the Office of the Dean of the student’s Faculty of registration, together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested.

The UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness and further information regarding this policy can be found at http://uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf.

EVALUATION OF ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

At least three days prior to the deadline for withdrawal from a course without academic penalty, students will receive assessment of work accounting for at least 15% of their final grade. For 3000- or 4000-level courses in which such a graded assessment is impracticable, the instructor(s) must obtain an exemption from this policy from the Dean and this exemption must be noted on the corresponding course syllabus. In rare instances and at the Dean’s discretion, other courses could receive a similar exemption, which also must be noted in the course syllabus.

COURSE ASSIGNMENT

The last day of scheduled classes in any course will be the last day on which course assignments will be accepted for credit in a course. Instructors will be required to return assignments to students as promptly as possible with reasonable explanations of the instructor's assessment of the assignment.

ACADEMIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

PLAGIARISM CHECKING

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com <http://www.turnitin.com>.

Any material copied from sources, even a sentence or two, must be appropriately indicated and cited. To repeat, this applies to all submitted assignments: glossaries, essays and the final exam.
