

KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE SCHOOL | PILOT 2019

Date	Time	Location
December 10, 2019	9AM – 12PM Sessions	Kellogg room, Taylor library
	12PM-1PM Networking Lunch
December 11, 2019	9AM – 12PM Sessions	Kellogg room, Taylor library
	12PM-1PM Networking Lunch
December 12, 2019	9AM – 12PM Sessions	Kellogg room, Taylor library
	12PM-1PM Networking Lunch

Session #1 – Developing Successful Research Programs and Measuring Impact December 10, 2019
Topic & Time	Details	Presenter(s)
Introduction to Knowledge Exchange 9:00AM-10:00AM	Overview of knowledge exchange – what is it and why is it important? This session will discuss partnered research, knowledge exchange and feasibility considerations.	Dr. Nadine Wathen Faculty of Information & Media Studies and Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing
Measuring and Reporting Research Impact 10:00AM-11:00AM	Overview of scholarly impact metrics and tools available at Western. This session will also explore broader research impact and integration into CVs.	Dr. Anita Kothari Faculty of Health Sciences Qing Liu Research Western
Developing a Research Program 11:00AM-12:00PM	This hands-on workshop will walk attendees through the strategic planning required to build and maintain a research program.	Mariam Hayward Research Western Dr. Swati Mehta St. Joseph's Health Centre
Session #2 – Knowledge Exchange for Successful Grant Applications December 11, 2019
Topic & Time	Details	Presenter(s)
Integrating Knowledge Exchange into Grants 9:00AM-10:00AM	How do you create a robust knowledge exchange plan? This session will highlight tips and tricks of grant writing with integrated knowledge exchange.	Mariam Hayward Research Western
Knowledge Exchange Evaluation 10:00AM-11:00AM	This session will provide an overview of evaluation designs, methods and tools to assess the success of knowledge exchange efforts in achieving the intended impacts.	Dr. Anita Kothari Faculty of Health Sciences
Research Data Management & Open Access 11:00AM-12:00PM	What is research data management and open access? What are the Tri-Council policies? This session will provide an overview highlighting resources available at Western. Time will be provided to connect with Western libraries on how they can assist.	Kristi Thompson, Elizabeth Hill, Kristin Hoffmann and Courtney Vaughn Western Libraries

Session #3 – Communicating Research Outputs To and Beyond Academia December 12, 2019
Topic & Time	Details	Presenter(s)
Writing Scholarly Output 9:00AM-10:30AM	Instruction for writing for scholarly publication, strategies to increase persuasiveness and clarity, and demystify grammar.	Dr. Mark Goldszmidt Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry
Communicating Beyond An Academic Audience 10:30AM-12:00PM	This session will explore the importance of story-telling in profiling research. A number of knowledge exchange activities will be explored including: 1) arts-based knowledge exchange, 2) video and website creation, 3) plain language research summaries, and 4) Western's institutional repository Scholarship@Western.	Douglas Keddy Research Western Dr. Eugenia Canas Faculty of Information & Media Studies James Shelley Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing Jonathan Deeks BrainsCAN Mariam Hayward Research Western Tom Adam Western Libraries