2. Reflecting on this past academic year, I believe that the reason(s) I did not meet Western's progression requirements is/are (you may use full sentences or point form):

3. In order to improve my academic standing and meet the conditions of my probation, I plan on doing the following (you may use full sentences or point form):

I have read and understand the conditions of my probation.

I agree to make an academic counselling check-in appointment in January after my first term grades are posted.

I know that I can make an academic counselling appointment before January if I am struggling.

If I am taking any full-year courses, I will bring a copy of my mid-year grade(s) with me to my counselling appointment.
