

Centre for the Study of Theory and Criticism
at Western University with

Radboud University's Center for Contemporary European Philosophy
A two-day workshop on "Affects and Worlds"

May 26

10 AM - meet, introductions

10:30-11:15 - Tim Miechels, "Nature as Unworlded World: Existence Fleeing in the Face of Itself"

11:15-12:15 - roundtable #1 Theory Centre students: Glynis MacLeod, Tanner Layton, Hayden DeBruler, Paria Rahimi (chair Antonio Calcagno)

12:15-1:30 - lunch

1:30-2:30 - Rae Aumiller, "Defending the Indefensible: the Young Hegelians on Academic Censorship, Cuts, and Speaking Out"

2:30-3:00 - break

3:00-4:30 - keynote - Dominic Pettman, The New School, "Amor Mundi, or How to Love This Sad Planet?" (on Zoom)

May 27

10:00-11:00 - workshop update on papers prepared for journal issue

11:00-12:00 - roundtable #2 Theory Centre students: Jason Stocker, Peter Heft, Bronte Cronsberry, Junyu Ke (chair Russell Duvernoy)

12:00-1:30 - lunch

1:30-2:30 - Marjolein Oele, "Love, again: On Testimony, Amor Mundi, and Love of Soil"

2:30-3:00 - break

3:00-4:30 - keynote - Diane Enns, TMU, "Affective Worlds: How to Live with the Contradictions of Catastrophe" (hybrid with Zoom link)