The Chair may cancel a regular meeting if, after consultation with the President, the Chair is satisfied that the holding of a regular meeting is not warranted because of insufficient agenda.

(b) Unless the University Secretary, in consultation with the Chair, determines that special circumstances warrant meeting remotely, regular meetings shall be held in person. Members may attend up to two in-person regular meetings in an academic year by teleconferencing or other electronic means.

(c) The schedule of regular Board and committee meetings for the next academic year will be presented to members at the first regular meeting of the calendar year.

Attendance at closed session meetings is limited to members, Secretariat staff, and those invited to attend by the Board to assist with its deliberations.
26. The following provisions apply to items of business on the Board’s agenda:

   (a) Items of business shall normally be presented to the Board by only:

   The Chair of the Board
   The Chair of a committee of the Board
   The President (or another member of Western’s senior administration at the request of the President)

29. The following provisions apply to voting:

   (a) Each member shall have one vote except the Chair who may vote only when the vote is by ballot or to break or create a tie, but if the Chair creates a tie the Chair cannot break it. Voting may be by show of hands, by such other means as the Board may determine, or by assumed consent when no dissent is voiced.

   (b) Unless otherwise stated in this by-law, the Board’s meeting procedures, or the Board’s approved parliamentary authority, motions require a simple majority of those present and voting to pass.
(c) A special resolution of the Board requires a two-thirds majority of those present and voting to pass.

(d) A resolution signed by all members of the Board shall have the same force and effect as if passed at a regularly constituted meeting of the Board.

All dissenting votes by Board members which relate to issues that may incur personal liability as a result of statutory regulation shall be recorded in the minutes if requested by the dissenting member at the time the vote is taken. Members absent from a meeting may submit to the University Secretary notice of dissent not more than 7 days after receipt of the Board minutes. Notices of dissent so submitted will be retained on file by the University Secretary, but shall not affect the outcome of the vote nor be recorded in the Minutes.

CONFIDENTIALITY

31. Members of the Board shall observe strictly the confidential nature of business dealt with in closed session and it shall be their responsibility to ensure that such information is not divulged to unauthorized persons. At the commencement of a closed session the Chair shall remind members of their obligations in respect to confidentiality, by reading or directing their attention to the following caution:

Members are reminded that discussions entered into and the decisions made during the closed session of this meeting are carried out in confidence and are not to be repeated or discussed outside the Boardroom. Any material provided for the session will be retained in confidence afterwards, or may be returned to the University Secretary at the end of the meeting.

Decisions reached during the closed session which are to be announced after the meeting will be made public by official announcement or press release only and such publication does not free members of the obligation to hold in confidence the discussions which took place in the meeting or the material involved.

The continued presence of a member in the room shall indicate acceptance of these conditions.

32. Should a member declare an intention of noncompliance with the conditions of confidentiality and refuse to leave the room when requested to do so, the Chair shall, subject to a resolution of the Board:

(a) inform the offending member that, pending assurance to the effect that henceforth the member shall abide by the rules of the Board in respect to the confidentiality of information, the member shall be barred from attendance at any meeting of the Board or its committees at which business of a confidential nature will be dealt with and shall not be sent any notices or material in respect to them; and/or

CONDUCT OF OPEN MEETINGS

33. The following provisions apply to open meetings:

Placards or signs that have been permitted in the meeting room or been brought in without permission must be removed if so ordered by the Chair at any point in the meeting.
