1. Paid Absences From the Workplace

There are no formal university-wide restrictions relative to short-term paid absences from the workplace for PMA Eligible Staff. Such absences are subject to the operating requirements of the unit. Examples of short-term paid absences may include compassionate reasons, death or loss of a family member, etc. While jury and witness duties are not always short-term, they are included under short-term paid absences.

2. Career Development Leave

A Career Development Leave of absence, for up to one year, may be granted to a staff member subject to the operational requirements of his/her Unit/Faculty. Career Development Leaves are unpaid unless funded through a deferred salary arrangement according to this policy.

3. Family Medical Leave

(a) All PMA Eligible staff members are entitled to a family medical leave as outlined in the Ontario Employment Standards Act.

(b) The eight weeks of a family medical leave are not required to be taken consecutively, however a partial week of leave is counted as a full week.

(c) If two or more employees in Ontario take a family medical leave to provide care or support to a specific family member, the eight weeks of family medical leave must be shared.

4. Personal Emergency Leave

(a) PMA Eligible staff are entitled to up to 10 full days of personal emergency leave as outlined in the Ontario Employment Standards Act, every calendar year. The 10 days do not have to be taken consecutively and can be taken in part or full days or in periods of more than one day. Subject to the discretion of the supervisor, part days can be counted as a full day of leave for the purposes of determining the 10 day entitlement, however, if a staff member works part of the day, he/she is paid for the time worked.

(b) There is no pro-rating of the 10-day entitlement. A staff member who begins work part way through a calendar year is still entitled to 10 emergency days during the remainder of that year.

(c) Unused personal emergency leave days cannot be carried over to the next calendar year.
