

Art in the Public Sphere – Speaker Series

Andrea Fatona, contemporary curator at the Ottawa Art Gallery and PhD candidate at U of T is guest speaker in the Art Now! class.

Thursday, Nov. 18 > 8 pm > VAC room 100

All welcome. Free admission.

Friday, Nov. 19 > 2- 4 pm > VAC 249

VA Grad and Faculty Research Forum

Cody Barteet (Art History Faculty) – 2:00-2:40 pm

Writing about Cultural Transference: The Case of the Gothic in Yucatán

Ahlia Moussa (MA Candidate) – 2:40-3:20 pm

A presentation on the upcoming "Revisiting Ephemera Graduate Conference and Exhibition", to be held at the Artlab Jan. 15, 2011

Kelly Wood (Studio Faculty) – 3:20-4:00 pm

Lincoln Clarke's 'Heroine's Series Photographs' and some pollutions

Mapping Medievalism at the Canadian Frontier

www.mappingmedievalism.ca/

McIntosh Gallery and D.B. Weldon Library until December 11, 2010

Museum London until January 16, 2011

Sunday, Nov. 14 – 1:00 pm:

Medieval-themed film at Museum London: How to Train Your Dragon.

This recent and highly rated fantasy film (2010) is set in a mystical world of burly Vikings and wild dragons. It tells the story of a young Viking teenager who encounters a dragon that challenges his fellow Vikings to see the world from a different point of view. This contemporary example of "movie medievalism" will enchant both children and adults.

Until Nov. 19: Exhibition by Kelly Wood's undergraduate photography classes in the Concourse Gallery. This exhibition will feature visual responses to Mapping Medievalism at the Canadian Frontier. Some works will be reinstalled for the exhibition to open on December 2nd.

Until Dec. 1: Month-long studio activities on the topic 'Medievaled' Sculpture by Kelly Jazvac's third-year sculpture class in the ArtLab. The sculpture students will produce visual responses to Mapping Medievalism at the Canadian Frontier, and their projects will culminate in an exhibition to open on December 2nd in the ArtLab.

Faculty of Arts and Humanities

UNITED WAY Chili Lunch and Silent Auction

Wednesday, November 17th

12 noon to 1:30 pm

UC 225/225A

Cost: $5.00 includes a bowl of chili, bread & butter and a beverage.

Silent Auction will be in UC 224A
from 11:30 – 1:30 pm

All proceeds will be donated to the UNITED WAY.

Instructors: Please begin putting up your displays as of Monday the 15th for

Fall Preview Day
Saturday, Nov. 20

Information Sessions and Displays in VAC are from 9:30-2:30 pm;
and in UC from 8:30-3:00 pm.

Guided tours of VAC are at:

11:00 a.m.

12:00 p.m.

2:00 p.m.