SYCHONOUS HOUR: 1:30-2:30 Thursdays

“Western University is situated on the traditional land of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenausane, Lenape and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London. In close proximity to Western, there are 3 local First Nations communities: the Chippewas of the Thames First Nation, Oneida Nation of the Thames, and Munsee Delaware Nation. In the region of southwestern Ontario, there are 9 First Nations and a growing Indigenous urban population. Western recognizes the significant historical and contemporary contributions of local and regional First Nations and all of the Original peoples of Turtle Island (North America) to the development of Canada.”

DEPARTMENTAL COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is interested in the interdisciplinary study of heterosexualities. Topics covered will include: social and historical productions of (hetero)sexualities; cultural performances of (hetero)sexualities; heterosexual pleasures and dangers; heterosexed pornographies and sex-work; erotic (hetero)sexual power play; and heterosexualities that cross the boundaries of (cis)gender, race, age, ability, class and nation, 3 lecture hours, 0.5 course.

DETAILED COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course considers how heterosexual cultures impact people's feelings, experiences, and identities surrounding sex and love. We look at how heterosexualities influence people's gendered performances and how they view themselves as sexual beings. The course examines the margins of sexual identification including queer experiences and identities. Some topics that we will consider include: the origins of the term ‘heterosexual’, sexualities in the past, the role of Disney in instilling heterosexual cultures and identities in young people, the impact of the Twilight series on gender roles and sex, pornography and heterosexual identities in sports, and toxic masculinities in online communities as well as in contemporary politics.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Students will develop their understanding of heterosexualities through an interdisciplinary approach.

2. They will demonstrate their ability to make connections between, and critically engage with, interdisciplinary scholarship on heterosexualities in discussion and course assessments.

3. Students will come to appreciate the myriad of ways that heterosexualities have impacted peoples’ experiences, understandings of self, their relationships with others, and participation in society.

4. During this course, students will learn how cultural expressions of heterosexualities both represent and influence people’s most personal feelings and experiences.

5. Students will learn that experiences, feelings, culture, history, and society also exist outside of the margins of heterosexuality.

6. Students are encouraged to connect course content with their personal experiences.

7. The class will assist students with their written and oral communication skills specifically their ability to clearly articulate, support, and organize arguments.

8. The course will help develop students’ written communication skills particularly focusing on organizing essays, developing a clear writing style, and accurate use of grammar.

9. This course will also help students become more comfortable articulating thoughtful analysis, summary, reflections, and observations to their peers.
KEY COURSE QUESTIONS

- How have heterosexuality impacted people’s lived experiences and histories?
- How have people lived and acted outside of the margins of heterosexuality?
- How have heterosexuality changed over the course of time and location?
- How have heterosexuality impacted the ways in which people view, perform, and experience sex?
- How have heterosexuality influenced people’s performance of gender?
- How have class, race, and ability impacted how people view, experience, and perform heterosexuality?

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Analyze a Romantic Comedy Essay (15% of Final Grade) 3-4 pages in-length, double spaced, with Times New Roman Font and regular margins. Due in the OWL assignment folder at 11 pm on Thursday, January 28.

Using two readings from our course, analyze a romantic comedy film from the list below. Your thesis will answer the following question: What does this film convey to viewers about heterosexuality/heterosexual relationships as well as appropriate and/or inappropriate gender roles within heterosexual relationships? You will be evaluated based on the quality of your argument, your success in supporting this argument, the quality of your analysis, your discussion of the movie’s content and the content of the readings, your organization, the clarity of your writing, and your writing mechanics (spelling and grammar). Please remember that this is an analysis-based assignment and your focus should not be summarizing the movie nor the readings. Please use MLA citation style and standard margins.

Critical Book Response Essay (30% of Final Grade) 6-7 pages in-length, double spaced, with Times New Roman Font and regular margins. Due in the OWL assignment folder at 11 pm on Thursday, March 4.

Following discussing Kaleigh Trace’s 2014 autobiography, Hot, Wet, and Shaking in our synchronous hour, students will be asked to write an individual critical book response. The point of this assignment is to provide a critical argument regarding the book using the core concepts discussed in week one (heterosexuality, discourse, hegemony, and performance). Your response should be organized around a clear thesis. When developing your thesis, you should consider the primary questions of the course listed above. Please draw on at least two additional readings to help you support your analysis. You will be evaluated based on the quality of your argument, your success in supporting this argument, the quality of your analysis, your discussion of Trace’s book and your chosen readings, your organization, the clarity of your writing, and your writing mechanics (spelling and grammar). Please remember that this is an analysis-based assignment and your focus should not be summarizing the book nor the readings. Please use MLA citation style and standard margins.

Participation (15%)

This class involves student engagement in the learning process through active contributions to class discussions in our synchronous hour. It is crucial to note that mere attendance is insufficient to warrant a good participation grade. Students will be evaluated based on the quality and regularity of their contributions to class discussions.

Discussion Question Assignment (10%) (5% per question) Due in the OWL assignment folder 11:00 am on the day the reading is scheduled.

In the first week of class, students will choose two different readings from two different weeks. Students will then submit two discussion questions during the term. Each question will be due by 11:00 am on the day the reading is scheduled. Your question may be drawn upon in our synchronous hour to facilitate class discussion. Your questions should not be content-based questions about the reading. Your questions should make broader connections to key course concepts, questions, units, and/or weeks.
Take-Home Exam (30%) Two Essays (15%) each. No more than 1000 words per essay.

Students will write two short essays for their open-book take-home exam. Each essay will be worth 15% percent of the final grade. There will be a choice of four essay questions. Students will be graded based on the quality of their argument, their ability to make sophisticated and nuanced connections between key course concepts and questions, course themes, and content. I will provide access to the examination 24 hours prior to the beginning of the examination slot. Papers will be due by the end of the assigned examination slot.

COURSE POLICIES

LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS AND EMAIL POLICIES

Participants enrolled in this class are expected to complete the required course readings, watch all virtual lectures, complete all assigned activities, attend virtual classes, respectfully contribute to classroom activities and discussions, and complete course assignments on time. Smartphones are permitted but please refrain using your electronics for outside activity during class. Please have your telephones set to silent. Our learning environments will be respectful spaces. I will strive to reply to emails within forty-eight hours. Please do not expect an immediate response. You should be as specific as possible with your questions. The title of the email should include our course name and code as well as the reason for the email. Specific questions receive specific answers. Please feel free to make an appointment during my virtual office hours or see me after our synchronous session if your question is more appropriately handled in-person. I may not respond to emails on weekends or during the evenings. However, I will check my email as often as I can during the work week.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Please notify your professor if you are unable to attend our synchronous hour. If a student has not engaged sufficiently in the course, this neglect could be grounds for failure in the course. I may contact you indicating your absence if you are absent from three synchronous sessions.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Essays must be submitted to their OWL folder by 11 pm on the due date and Discussion Questions by 11 am the day your readings are scheduled. I will apply a penalty of 2% a day for late assignments. For late essays, submit a copy to the late assignments OWL folder.

TURNITIN
“All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licencing agreement currently between the University and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com)” (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/exam/courseoutlines.pdf)

ACADEMIC OFFENCES

“Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/scholoff.pdf
http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/exam/courseoutlines.pdf

ACCOMODATION POLICIES

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

ACADEMIC CONSIDERATION FOR STUDENT ABSENCE

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student’s final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student’s final grade,
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.
Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's Home Faculty.

For Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence, see

Policy on Academic Consideration for Student Absences - Undergraduate Students in First Entry Programs

and for the Student Medical Certificate (SMC), see:

RECOMMENDED ACCOMMODATION

Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

USE OF RECORDINGS

All of the remote learning sessions for this course will be recorded. The data captured during these recordings may include your image, voice recordings, chat logs and personal identifiers (name displayed on the screen). The recordings will be used for educational purposes related to this course, including evaluations. The recordings may be disclosed to other individuals under special circumstances. Please contact the instructor if you have any concerns related to session recordings.

Participants in this course are not permitted to record the sessions, except where recording is an approved accommodation, or the participant has the prior written permission of the instructor.

ONLINE ETIQUETTE

Some components of this course will involve online interactions. To ensure the best experience for both you and your classmates, please honour the following rules of etiquette:
• please “arrive” to class on time
• please use your computer and/or laptop if possible (as opposed to a cell phone or tablet)
• ensure that you are in a private location to protect the confidentiality of discussions in the event that a class discussion deals with sensitive or personal material
• to minimize background noise, kindly mute your microphone for the entire class until you are invited to speak, unless directed otherwise
• please be prepared to turn your video camera off at the instructor’s request if the internet connection becomes unstable
• unless invited by your instructor, do not share your screen in the meeting

The course instructor will act as moderator for the class and will deal with any questions from participants. To participate please consider the following:

• if you wish to speak, use the “raise hand” function and wait for the instructor to acknowledge you before beginning your comment or question
• remember to unmute your microphone and turn on your video camera before speaking
• self-identify when speaking.
• remember to mute your mic and turn off your video camera after speaking (unless directed otherwise)

General considerations of “netiquette”:

• Keep in mind the different cultural and linguistic backgrounds of the students in the course.
• Be courteous toward the instructor, your colleagues, and authors whose work you are discussing.
• Be respectful of the diversity of viewpoints that you will encounter in the class and in your readings. The exchange of diverse ideas and opinions is part of the scholarly environment. “Flaming” is never appropriate.
• Be professional and scholarly in all online postings. Cite the ideas of others appropriately.

Note that disruptive behaviour of any type during online classes, including inappropriate use of the chat function, is unacceptable. Students found guilty of Zoom-bombing a class or of other serious online offenses may be subject to disciplinary measures under the Code of Student Conduct.
