COURSE DESCRIPTION
Speech 2001 is an intensive practical course dedicated to developing and refining skills in effective oral communication. Students are expected to speak frequently; emphasis is on direct address before a group, with effective organization of ideas, clarity of expression, and use of rhetorical strategies and tactics. All aspects of the arts of delivery, the logical construction of arguments and their support, effective arrangement of material, rhetorical analysis of speeches (both written and oral), and effective use of statistics, testimony, evidence, and examples will be included. In addition, emphasis is placed on acquiring and applying communication theory and on developing listening and critical skills, including peer evaluation.

Because of the workshop nature of the course, attendance and participation are mandatory. Failure to present a scheduled speech will result in a grade of zero for the assignment. No audits allowed. No Final Examination.

Assignments: All speeches require submission of the script to Dropbox on OWL

Students are also expected to engage in several ungraded exercises and practice speeches.
Owl (Sakai)
Assignments will be posted on our OWL course site. Modifications to the schedule may occur from time to time, but students will be notified through Announcements on OWL. Check that Owl Announcements are sent to your phone. I post updates and additional information regularly that sometimes require a response.

Notify your instructor prior to your scheduled speaking time if you are unable to give your presentation. Since the course is asynchronous, see instructions for assignments on OWL, in addition to the schedule below.

*Missed/Late Assignment Policies:
A missed speech results in a grade of zero unless there are extenuating circumstances related to health or other unusual circumstances. Again, see the Medical Accommodation Policy set out below and in the document ‘Information for Students in a Writing Studies Course’ for the options available to you and the procedure(s) you should follow.

Speeches are posted to OWL on Monday at 6pm the week they are scheduled. Scripts/outlines (keyboarded) are due on the same Monday of the week of your presentation. The latter should be submitted in the Dropbox on OWL before midnight. Critiques are due one week (Mondays) after the presentation; please provide two copies of your critique.

Medical Accommodation Policy:
Note: The official Western/Writing Studies Medical Accommodation Policy appears below. This remains in effect, but it may be modified temporarily by the university during the academic year as conditions change.

Western has a comprehensive policy covering requests for accommodation by students who are not registered with Student Accessibility Services. All students should review this policy here, under the heading ‘Accommodation for Illness – Undergraduate Students’, noting the procedures, restrictions, and notice requirements:
http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12

In Writing courses, students covered by this policy who are seeking academic consideration must proceed as follows.

Writing Studies’ Basic Policy: students seeking academic consideration on medical or any other grounds for any missed tests/exams, class attendance/participation components, or late or missed assignments must either initiate a Self-Reported Absence (for a grade component worth up to 30% of their final grade, but excluding final exams scheduled during the exam period) or apply in person to the Academic Counselling or Undergraduate office of their home Faculty and provide a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) or other supporting documentation as required in accordance with official Western policy (linked above).

Students seeking academic consideration must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by either:
  i. A Self-Reported Absence, or
  ii. Academic consideration supported by the Academic Counselling Office.
Exception: in Writing Studies courses, a student seeking academic accommodation on non-medical grounds for any missed in-class tests/exams, class attendance/participation components, or late or missed assignments worth less than 10% of a final grade may first consult directly with her or his instructor, who will – in his or her discretion – either either to make a decision on the request directly or instruct the student to follow the procedures set out in Writing Studies’ Basic Policy.

Please note that individual instructors will not under any circumstances accept or read medical documentation directly offered by a student, whether in support of an application for accommodation on medical grounds or for related reasons (e.g. to explain an absence from class which may result in a grade penalty under an ‘Attendance’ policy in the course). All medical documentation must be submitted to the Academic Counselling or Undergraduate office of a student’s home Faculty.

Students who are or who feel they should be covered under Student Accessibility Services should review Western policy here:
http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_10

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to MentalHealth@Western:

Special Requests: Special Examinations, Incomplete Standing, Aegrotat Standing:
Please refer to the “Information for All Students in a Writing Studies Course” for more detailed information. Briefly, remember that instructors do not have the discretion to initiate, consider, or grant (or not) such requests; you must go directly to the Dean’s office of your home faculty.

E-mail policy: Please note that UWO Instructors can respond only to UWO e-mail addresses. Grades can be communicated only through the Mail aspect of Owl, not through UWO e-mail.

Classroom Computer-Use Policy: (Not Applicable in 2020-2021)
Speech 2001 is not only about public speaking but also about acquiring good listening skills, skills essential in human relationships of all kinds. Thus, it is not appropriate to use technology (such as, but not limited to, PDAs, laptops, cellphones) in the classroom for non-classroom activities. Such activity is disruptive and distracting to other students and to the instructor and can inhibit learning. Students are expected to respect the classroom environment and to refrain from inappropriate use of technology and other electronic devices in class.

Plagiarism:
The University Senate requires that the following statement on plagiarism be included on all course syllabi:

“Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:
http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.”
Students must write their analyses and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offense (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

_When you give a speech, be prepared to provide sources in Forums. Attach a Works Cited page to your scripts, including quotes and inspiration from other speeches, movies, etc. Citing credible sources is an important aspect of ethos in public speaking._

Prerequisites:
Unless you have either the prerequisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Accommodation, Illness, Reporting and Academic Consideration:
Policies Applied to All Arts and Humanities Courses 2020

Academic Consideration for Student Absence

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student’s final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors by email within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student’s final grade,
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are _not_ met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.

Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. _All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student’s Home Faculty._

For Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence, see Policy on Academic Consideration for Student Absences - Undergraduate Students in First Entry Programs and for the Student Medical Certificate (SMC), see: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf.
Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to MentalHealth@Western: (https://www.uwo.ca/health/psych/index.html) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Religious Accommodation
Students should consult the University’s list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion (EDI)
The use of any language that works against the values of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion will not be tolerated.

Online Etiquette: General considerations of “netiquette”
- Keep in mind the different cultural and linguistic backgrounds of the students in the course.
- Be courteous toward the instructor, your colleagues, and authors whose work you are discussing.
- Be respectful of the diversity of viewpoints presented in the class and in readings. The exchange of diverse ideas and opinions is part of the scholarly environment. “Flaming” is never appropriate.
- Be professional and scholarly in all online postings. Cite the ideas of others appropriately.
- Note that disruptive behaviour of any type during online classes is unacceptable.

Goals/Outcomes: Upon finishing this course in public speaking, a student will be able to:
- Speak effectively and confidently
- Understand and apply ethical theories
- Explain the differences between informative and persuasive rhetoric
- Craft, support, and communicate different types of arguments
- Develop critical listening skills
- Give and receive feedback
- Incorporate feedback into future speeches
- Construct research-based arguments
- Understand and apply Group Communication Theory
- Create Rhetorical Analyses, both written and oral
- Develop and deliver an Epideictic or Special Occasion Speech
- Incorporate audience analysis into speech preparation
- Work effectively in groups
- Integrate Classical Rhetorical Technique into contemporary speaking practices
