

2292F: Well-Versed in the Craft: Introduction to Poetry (Fall 2020)

Section 001 (Online)
Instructor: David Barrick

Email: dbarric@uwo.ca
Office Hours: Email/by appointment

Course Objectives

Students will expand and refine their craft by exploring a variety of techniques and approaches to writing poetry, with a particular focus on these essential elements: imagery, voice, theme, pacing, structure (line breaks & stanzas), literary devices, sound, and rhythm. This will be achieved through the analysis of contemporary Canadian poets and through ongoing class workshops, forum discussions, and writing exercises. Students will also consider the larger context of Canadian literary community and how, as emerging writers, they might participate in it.

Students who successfully complete Writing 2292F should be able to do the following:

- Communicate information, arguments, and analyses accurately and reliably, orally and in writing to a range of audiences;
- Generate poem ideas, images, and drafts through writing exercises;
- Write using a variety of poetic approaches, including free verse, lyric/narrative techniques, formal verse, prose poetry, ekphrasis, and experimentation;
- Analyze the work of published poets;
- Work effectively with classmates, giving and receiving constructive feedback;
- Incorporate feedback into revisions of course work;
- Understand the importance of engaging with literary community in the form of researching publishers, reading journals/contemporary poets, attending readings, and submitting poems.

Submitting Assignments

Assignments are due on the date specified on their corresponding guidelines. Late assignments will be penalized 5% per day unless I have granted you an extension. You must request extensions ahead of the due date; they are not automatic, nor will they be granted retroactively.

In this course, you will submit the final version of all written assignments electronically (Doc files only), through OWL, to Turnitin.com. No hard copies are required. Do not fax or email assignments; do not drop off assignments anywhere on campus. Also, be aware that you are responsible for keeping copies of all assignments submitted.

Weekly Discussions/Participation

This course is entirely online and asynchronous, so you will be required to participate in weekly OWL discussion forums. These mandatory class discussions are based on the weekly readings and function as the equivalent of class attendance. Non-participation can result in a course grade penalty: 1) You may miss ONE discussion forum post without any penalty; 2) If you miss TWO or THREE discussion forum posts, you will receive a 5% penalty on your final course grade; 3) If you miss more than THREE posts, you will receive a 10% penalty on your final course grade. If you miss a discussion forum post for medical or compassionate reasons, please see Western's Accommodation Policy (below) and contact me directly.

Office Hours/E-mail Policy

This term, I will not be holding in-person office hours. Instead, I will be answering course questions and offering additional clarification/help through email. I respond to e-mails within 24 hours. If you have not heard from me in 48 hours, please resend your message. I do not check e-mail on the weekend.

Scholastic Offences, including Plagiarism

"Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_undergrad.pdf

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement currently Western and Turnitin.com <http://www.turnitin.com>."

Note: In this course you will be required to submit an electronic copy of the final version of each of your essays to turnitin.com through your section's OWL HomePage.

Prerequisites

“Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.”

The prerequisite for registration in this course is a) a final grade of 65 or more in one of Writing 2101F/G, 2125F/G (or the former 2121F/G), 2111F/G, 2130F/G, or 2131F/G; or b) a final grade of 70 or more in one of Writing 1000F/G, 1030F/G, 1031F/G, or c) Special Permission of the department.

Accommodation Policy

Note: the official Western Accommodation Policy appears below. This is in effect, but may be modified temporarily by the university during the academic year as conditions change.

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors by email within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade,
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.

Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's Home Faculty.

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to MentalHealth@Western: (<https://www.uwo.ca/health/psych/index.html>) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Religious Accommodation

Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing (email), prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.
