

Writing 1000: The Writers' Studio
Fall 2026Section # 001*Instructor: David BarrickCOURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES*DESCRIPTION

Students are introduced to the creative process of writing through in-class exercises, peer workshop, and analysis of creative text. Students learn strategies for idea generation in a variety of genres, composing a first draft, approaching revision, and effective editing and proofreading techniques.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have demonstrated the ability to

1. identify the fundamental elements of creative writing;
2. generate ideas in a variety of genres: poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, drama/screenwriting;
3. analyze and respond critically to published writing and the work of their peers; and
4. incorporate feedback into revisions.

Assignment Format

All assignments must be submitted to the OWL Brightspace site as Word files (docx); no PDFs or other file formats accepted. Make sure that prose assignments are double-spaced and that poetry assignments are single-spaced. Include your name, course name, section number, and the instructor's name on the first page. For source documentation (if applicable) and document format, you will be expected to follow the conventions of MLA style. All details relevant to each writing project will be posted on the OWL site ahead of the due date.

Submitting Assignments

In this course, you will be required to submit the final version of each of your assignments electronically through OWL Brightspace to turnitin.com. No print copies are necessary.

However, be aware that you are responsible for keeping backup copies of all assignments submitted. Occasionally, handwritten drafts/exercises composed in class may be collected.

Assignments are due on the date specified in the weekly schedule (below). Late assignments will be penalized 5 points per day unless you have received an extension. You must contact your instructor about extensions ahead of the due date and provide a valid reason; extensions are not automatic and cannot be granted retroactively.

Classroom Policies & OWL Brightspace

Students are responsible for checking the course OWL site (<https://westernu.brightspace.com/>) regularly for news and updates. This is the primary method by which information will be disseminated to all students in the class. If students need assistance with the course OWL site, they can seek support on the OWL Brightspace Help page. Alternatively, they can contact the Western Technology Services Helpdesk (phone: 519-661-3800 or ext. 83800).

Attendance Policies

Attendance at class is required to improve as a writer. Here is the Writing Studies attendance policy in this class:

If you miss nine unexcused hours of class (the equivalent of up to three full weeks of class), your final grade will be reduced by 10 marks (e.g., an earned final grade of 80% will be reduced to a final grade of 70%; a grade of 70% will be reduced to 60%).

If you miss a total of more than nine unexcused hours of class (the equivalent of more than three weeks of class meetings) your final grade will be reduced by 15 marks (e.g., an earned final grade of 80% will be reduced to a final grade of 65; a final grade of 70 will be reduced to 55).

This policy will be waived only if you have either undocumented or documented academic consideration. You may only use the undocumented consideration option once each term. If your absence is extended and prolonged (over one week of continuous non-attendance), then you must discuss it with your academic advisor in your home faculty, and submit documentation to support your request for academic consideration. (See Academic Consideration policy below.)

Attendance also extends to tardiness. If you are more than 20 minutes late, you will be penalized an hour of attendance. Please make every effort to be on time as late entry can disrupt the flow of discussion in our class. Early departures from class, which have not been previously arranged with the instructor, will also be counted as an absence. If you leave during the break, you will be docked an hour of attendance.

Note: A class meeting missed in order to write a test, exam, or other form of ‘make-up class’ in another course will count as non-attendance, and will attract penalties as defined above if applicable. Instructors at the University of Western Ontario shall not require a student to write a make-up test or similar at times which conflict with that student’s other scheduled class times. If you are asked or ‘required’ to do this, you should immediately contact an academic counsellor in your Dean’s office. If you elect to miss a class in order to write such a test, that is your choice; your absence will not be excused.
