

Writing 1000F: The Writers' Studio

Fall 2026 online – Section 650

Instructor: David BarrickEmail: dbarric@uwo.ca*COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES*DESCRIPTION

Students are introduced to the creative process of writing through in-class exercises, peer workshop, and analysis of creative text. Students learn strategies for idea generation in a variety of genres, composing a first draft, approaching revision, and effective editing and proofreading techniques.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have demonstrated the ability to

1. identify the fundamental elements of creative writing;
2. generate ideas in a variety of genres: poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, drama/screenwriting;
3. analyze and respond critically to published writing and the work of their peers; and
4. incorporate feedback into revisions.

OWL Brightspace Site

Students are responsible for checking the course OWL site (<https://westernu.brightspace.com/>) regularly for news and updates. This is the primary method by which information will be disseminated to all students in the class. If students need assistance with the course OWL site, they can seek support on the OWL Brightspace Help page. Alternatively, they can contact the Western Technology Services Helpdesk. They can be contacted by phone at 519-661-3800 or ext. 83800.

Assignment Format

All assignments must be submitted to the OWL Brightspace site as Word files (docx); no PDFs or other file formats accepted. Make sure that prose assignments are double-spaced and that poetry assignments are single-spaced. Include your name, course name, section number, and the instructor's name on the first page. For source documentation (if applicable) and document format, you will be expected to follow the conventions of MLA style. All details relevant to each writing project will be posted on the OWL site ahead of the due date.

Submitting Assignments

Assignments are due on the date specified in the weekly schedule (below). Late assignments will be penalized 5 points per day unless you have received an extension. You must contact your instructor about extensions ahead of the due date and provide a valid reason; extensions are not automatic and cannot be granted retroactively.

Attendance and Engagement

This is an asynchronous online course with no scheduled class, and no penalties for missing class. However, it is your responsibility to stay engaged with the course by regularly logging in to OWL to read the weekly lectures and stay abreast of assignments and forums. You are also required to regularly participate in OWL FORUM workshops (see schedule below for workshop dates) where you will give and receive feedback on drafts of your creative pieces. Lecture #1 outlines how the forums will be organized. Lecture #2 & #3 include instructions on how to give and receive constructive feedback on creative works. A penalty of 10 marks per assignment will be deducted for any student who does not post an assignment for workshoping and/or does not provide feedback to the other students in their workshop group for that particular assignment (e.g., an earned assignment grade of 80% will be reduced to 70%; a grade of 70% will be reduced to 60%). The OWL Brightspace workshops will have deadlines to ensure students have enough time to apply feedback to their draft revisions; once a forum is locked, the posts cannot be made up.
